

Spend a Buck

Decisions

PROCESS

- Members have 100 imaginary pennies they can distribute among a few options.
- Explain the options.
- Individuals decide how many pennies they will spend on each option.
- Gather and present the data to the group.

ALTERNATIVES

- Use this for individual choices rather than for a collective expression of priorities.

TIPS

- Provide think time before members assign their pennies.