GLOBE PEQUOT HISTORY

Globe Pequot was founded 75 years ago in 1947 in Stonington, Connecticut. Williams D. Haynes, its founder, owned the Stonington Printing Company and enjoyed writing historical treatises which he would print himself. Named The Pequot Press after a local Native American Iroquois tribe, the company published hardcover and paperback books, including Connecticut town histories and genealogies. In 1960, Haynes sold the printing company. In 1967, a new owner moved the still-small publishing company down the coastline to Essex, Connecticut where it took up residence in the historic Pratt Smithy, a repurposed blacksmith shop founded in 1678 by William Pratt.

The Pequot Press became a publisher for New England historical societies and assisted neighboring towns and other local groups with their publishing needs. Robert Wilkerson purchased The Pequot Press in 1970 and moved the business up the Connecticut River to Chester, Connecticut. Wilkerson expanded the publishing program to include books of New England history, biography, architecture, antiques, genealogy, and travel. The company published an average of fifteen new titles per year in the 1970’s, including the Guide to the Recommended Country Inns of New England and the Factory Store Guide to New England. Annual sales were around $300,000 in 1979.

The Boston Globe Newspaper Company purchased The Pequot Press in 1981 and changed the name to Globe Pequot Press. Over the next five years, the company grew at an average annual rate of 25 percent through organic growth of the core publishing program. In 1986, Globe Pequot Press purchased a similar regional publishing company in Charlotte, North Carolina called East Wood Press. In 1987, twenty titles were purchased from Pacific Search Press, a publisher located in the Pacific northwest. The company also acquired the international city and country guides from Cadogan Books of London, England, Gateway Books, and ICS Books.

In 1988, The Boston Globe sold the business to a subsidiary of McCaw Cellular Communications of Kirkland, Washington. McCaw was acquired in 1994 by AT&T and was renamed AT&T Wireless Services. In the early 1990’s, Globe Pequot Press was publishing 300 titles a year and employed approximately 40 people, including its longtime president, Linda Kennedy.

In 1992, the company relocated from Chester back down the river to Old Saybrook, Connecticut, consolidating all publishing and fulfillment operations into one custom-designed 30,000-square-foot facility. The company was purchased by Morris Communications of Augusta, Georgia in 1997. Morris is a privately held company with nationwide holdings in newspaper and magazine publishing, outdoor advertising and computer services, including Gray’s Sporting Journal and Alaska Magazine. In the late 1990’s and early 2000’s, Globe Pequot Press began an international expansion by distributing some of the most respected brand names in publishing, including Appalachian Mountain Club Books, Waterford Press, Berlitz, Cadogan Guides, Everyman Chess, Alastair Sawday Publishing and Bradt Travel Guides, most of whom remain distribution clients today. By the late 1990’s, the company employed 50 individuals and generated annual sales of $10 million.

Globe Pequot Press moved once again in 1999 to an enlarged office in Guilford, Connecticut to accommodate the burgeoning staff and a new dedicated warehousing facility located in Springfield, Tennessee.
Globe Pequot Press purchased Falcon Guides in 2000 from owner Bill Schneider in Helena, Montana. Falcon is now the largest publisher of hiking guides in the nation and publishes for enthusiasts of human-powered outdoor recreation, including mountaineering, paddling, camping, cycling, and nature guides. The acquisition included a nationally known regional travel series, Insiders’ Guides, and a western history imprint, TwoDot, which publishes the New York Times bestseller, The Doctor Wore Petticoats by author Chris Enss.

Building on an already impressive trade list, Globe Pequot Press purchased Lyons Press in 2001, a leading publisher of high-quality books on fishing and hunting, nature, animals, military history, American history, and sports.

In 2014, Globe Pequot Press was purchased by The Rowman & Littlefield Publishing Group of Lanham, Maryland and the name was changed to Globe Pequot®. Founded in 1949 in New York City, Rowman & Littlefield is one of the largest independently owned book publishers in the country. In addition to its trade group, the company publishes college textbooks and academic books under the Rowman & Littlefield imprint, scholarly books under Lexington Books and K-8 educational books under its Sundance-Newbridge imprints in Marlborough, Massachusetts. It also owns National Book Network (NBN), one of the industry’s oldest and largest independent distributors of trade publishers.

Today Globe Pequot® and its other regional imprints such as Down East Books (Maine), Pineapple Press (Florida), North Country Books (upstate New York) and Two Dot (Western states) form the largest publisher of regional books in the nation. The publishing program also includes numerous other leading trade imprints such as Prometheus Books, Stackpole Books, Gooseberry Patch, Muddy Boots, McBooks Press, Astragal Press, Applause Books, Backbeat Books, Limelight Editions, M. Evans, Taylor Trade Publishing and Eclipse Press. In 2022, Down East Books celebrates its 55th anniversary, Gooseberry Patch its 35th and Stackpole Books its 95th year.

Globe Pequot® has deep roots in many subject areas. Distributed by National Book Network, the distribution arm of Rowman & Littlefield, Globe Pequot maintains a robust publishing program of 600 new titles annually and some 30,000 backlist titles generating annual sales of close to $30 million. Crafters, climbers, kayakers, fly fishing anglers, naturalists, hikers, home cooks and bakers, trail runners, armchair travelers, American and military history fans, and explorers of all ages rely on Globe Pequot to equip and inspire them with the best in specialty, outdoor and regional publishing.

Globe Pequot’s backlist includes such iconic titles as National Book Award finalist The Boy Kings of Texas (Lyons Press) by Domingo Martinez (page 24), the leading guide for fly anglers The Orvis Fly Fishing Guide (Lyons Press) by Tom Rosenbauer (page 271), the great novel of Florida A Land Remembered (Pineapple Press) by Patrick D. Smith (page 158), the true crime classic Anatomy of Evil (Prometheus) by Michael H. Stone (page 233), the New York Times Bestseller A Perfect Union of Contrary Things (Backbeat) by Maynard James Keenan (page 192), the recently adapted as a major motion picture In the Heights (Applause) by Lin-Manuel Miranda and Quiara Alegría Hudes (page 206), the personal finance giant The Millionaire Next Door (Taylor Trade) by Thomas J. Stanley and William D. Danko (page 28), the top selling astrology book in the country The Only Astrology Book You’ll Ever Need (Taylor Trade) by Joanna Martine Woolfolk (page 27), the great story of Maine survival told in graphic novel format Lost Trail (Down East) by Donn Fendler (page 160), the inspiring children’s book series, Do Princesses... (Cooper Square/Muddy Boots Books) by author Carmela Coyle and illustrator Mike Gordon (page 154), the maritime historical fiction classics in the Bolitho series (McBooks Press) by Alexander Kent (page 77), and the Army Officer’s Guide (Stackpole Books) now in its 53rd edition by Dr Robert J. Dalessandro (page 108). And FalconGuides written by top outdoors experts and enthusiasts, have for many decades set the standard for outdoor recreation guides.
In 2022, Globe Pequot will relocate its offices once more. The company has purchased an office building at 64 South Main Street in Essex, Connecticut. This move will bring the business full circle back to its 1960’s presence in one of America’s most historic and well-preserved 17th century villages. On the banks of the Connecticut River, where whaling ships, ships of war and fishing boats were built when the country was still under British rule, Globe Pequot will enter its 76th year as one of America’s leading independent publishers. Stop by and say hello the next time you are travelling along Interstate 95. We are halfway between Boston and New York.

Joyce Tenneson’s detailed photographic studies of luminous sea shells adrift on a velvet-soft background remind us that startling beauty exists even in the most ordinary places. These surprising images give us a unique window into these secret lives of the sea. Short selected quotes from literature illuminate these ethereal portraits.

DOWN EAST BOOKS
RANGER CONFIDENTIAL
By Andrea Lankford

In this graphic and yet surprisingly funny account of her and others’ extraordinary careers, Lankford unveils a world in which park rangers struggle to maintain their idealism in the face of death, disillusionment, and the loss of a comrade killed while holding that thin green line between protecting the park from the people, the people from the park, and the people from each other. It’s the story behind the scenery of the nation’s crown jewels—Yosemite, Grand Canyon, Yellowstone, Great Smokies, Denali.

HARPO SPEAKS!
By Harpo Marx

“This is a riotous story which is reasonably mad and as accurate as a Marx brother can make it. Despite only a year and a half of schooling, Harpo, or perhaps his collaborator, is the best writer of the Marx Brother. Highly recommended.”

MY STORY
Illustrated Edition
By Marilyn Monroe, With Ben Hecht

The Marilyn in these pages is a revelation: a gifted, intelligent, vulnerable woman who was far more complex than the unwitting sex siren she portrayed on screen. Lavishly illustrated with photos of Marilyn, this special book celebrates the life and career of an American icon—from the unique perspective of the icon herself.

In the early 20th century, Bertha Palmer was one of the best-known and wealthiest women in America. She was an art collector, women's rights advocate, businesswoman, owner of Chicago's Palmer House Hotel, and had elegant homes in Chicago, Paris, and London. In 1910 she traveled to the small and rough settlement called Sarasota on the west coast of Florida. She managed to make a good deal of money and to change Sarasota forever.
“Most people search their whole lives for their purpose, but David Egan has always been driven to achieve inclusion for people with intellectual disabilities. In this deeply personal book, he shares the experiences that shaped his life and family. This book is one of a kind: the honest, inclusive, insightful and moving story of the dreams and triumphs of a remarkable man with Down syndrome.” —Dr. Timothy P Shriver, Chairman, Special Olympics International

WE Took to the Woods is an adventure story, written with humor, but it also portrays a cherished dream awakened into full life.
GEORGE & BARBARA BUSH
By Ellie LeBlond Sosa and Kelly-Ann Chase, Foreword by President George W. Bush

From teenage love to World War II to the White House—a love affair for the ages rooted in family and service.

“The First Couple of the Greatest Generation, the Bushes were bright and funny, strong and devoted, loving and enduring. Here is their story, wonderfully told by a granddaughter raised in the warm ethos of a fabled American family.”

—Jon Meacham, Pulitzer Prize-winning biographer
ROYAL SISTERS
By Anne Edwards
This is the first dual biography of Elizabeth, the princess who was to become Queen, and her younger sister, Margaret, who was to be her subject. From birth to maturity, they were the stuff of which dreams are made. It’s an honest look at how the royal sisters feel toward each other, their parents, their close relations and the men whom they have loved.

WHEN YOU FIND MY BODY
By D. Dauphinee

This book tells the story of events preceding Geraldine Largay’s vanishing in July 2013, while hiking the Appalachian Trail in Maine, what caused her to go astray, and the massive search and rescue operation that followed. Marrying the joys and hardship of life in the outdoors, as well as exploring the search & rescue community, it examines dying with grace and dignity. There are lessons in the story, both large and small. Lessons that may well save lives in the future.

THE MILLIONAIRE NEXT DOOR
Twentieth Edition
By Thomas J. Stanley Ph.D. and William D. Danko Ph.D, Foreword by Sarah Stanley Fallaw Ph.D

“The implication of The Millionaire Next Door...is that nearly anybody with a steady job can amass a tidy fortune.” —Forbes

“I love the book, The Millionaire Next Door. It talks about how it is a myth that most millionaires in America have inherited their money. The fact is, we have created such a great country over 250 years. We have actually found the way for poor people to go from nothing to huge wealth and to create a life-changing opportunity for their children and grandchildren.”

—Bernie Sanders
THE NEXT MILLIONAIRE NEXT DOOR
By Thomas J. Stanley Ph.D. and Sarah Stanley Falaw Ph.D

The authors highlight how specific decisions, behaviors, and characteristics align with the discipline of wealth building, covering consumption, budgeting, careers, investing, and financial management. They discuss general paths to building wealth on your own, focusing on careers and lifestyles associated with each path, and what it takes to be successful in each.

THE ENERGY SWITCH
By Peter Kelly-Detwiler

“The Peter Kelly-Detwiler is a master storyteller. This accessible read captures the story of his personal quest to understand the bigger picture of what is happening for energy in the U.S. and beyond. In particular, The Energy Switch reveals the rapid pace of technological, economic, and policy changes for the energy storage industry, and the enabling capabilities of energy storage to accelerate this power grid transition.” —Kelly Speakes-Backman, former CEO, Energy Storage Association

GOOSEBERRY PATCH
There’s nothing like the breezy days of summer...the freshest produce, grilling outdoors, swaying on the porch swing and watching the kids chase fireflies. A trip to the farmers’ market, or a short walk to your own backyard, give us reasons to share the most flavorful dishes with our family & friends. We’re celebrating all these memories in the making with Summer in the Country.
SEASONS AT THE FARM
By Shaye Elliott
Following the success of Welcome to the Farm, Shaye Elliott shares how she celebrates family and farm traditions year-round. With her engaging storytelling and gorgeous full-color photos, Shaye brings to life how to entertain simply yet beautifully without mortgaging the farm. Simple recipes, decorating advice, and projects make this an inspirational and aspirational sequel to her beloved previous books.

The secret of Olivia’s success is no secret at all: She exercises daily and eats a simple diet based mostly on salads, vegetables, fish, chicken, and some whole grains. She firmly believes that what we eat is imperative to staying healthy and well-balanced and she shares this philosophy in her first cookbook, Livwise. The recipes are imaginative, tasty, and very healthy, from delicious salads and snacks to hearty main dishes and guilt-free desserts.

Review:

“Books on canning and preserving are a dime-a-dozen, but from the very first page, I could tell this one was different. Rather than approaching the topic with the usual textbook formality, Ann brings a human touch to the subject and makes me feel like I’m in her kitchen chatting about preservation methods over a cup of tea. From canning to root cellaring and everything in between, I will wholeheartedly be recommending The Farm Girl’s Guide to Preserving the Harvest to anyone ready to start taking charge of their food supply and preserving their harvest.” —JILL WINGER, founder, The Prairie Homestead, blogger at ThePrairieHomestead, author of The Prairie Homestead Cookbook
"The Rancho de Chimayó Cookbook offers a beautiful glimpse into the still-vibrant cuisine of New Mexico. With the blending of centuries-old Spanish culture with native and modern American, a unique and delicious cuisine has emerged—one that will inspire journeys to the source and delicious meals from your kitchen." — Rick Bayless, author and host of Public Television’s Mexico: One Plate at a Time and chef-owner of Chicago’s Frontera Grill, Topolobampo, and Xoco
FAMILY TABLE
By Shaye Elliott

“Shaye Elliott not only delivers a gorgeous cookbook filled with thoughtful, flavor-forward recipes, but also one that deftly interweaves a very deep-rooted message of family, sustainable farming and stewardship. She’s able to tackle all of these subjects with grace and humor, leaving us with a book that’s as inspiring as it is practical.” – Jenny McGruther, author of The Nourished Kitchen

GLOBE PEQUOT 55
“He knew his subject first- and second-hand; he knew it backwards to the botany of the tribes. And now he told everybody else how to gather and prepare wild food. From the Red River Valley to the mountains of Pennsylvania (where he would spend his last years) he took us all over North American to places few people knew in the way he knew them, and he showed what provender was there. He called his first book Stalking the Wild Asparagus, and it became part of the beginnings of the ecological uplift and it sold well enough to get onto the bestseller lists.” —John McPhee

A BLACKSMITHING PRIMER
By Randy McDaniel
Virtually every task beginning and intermediate blacksmiths must master is presented in this excellent book. Over 400 detailed drawings help increase comprehension levels. This is a reference manual that will be found lying open on the workbench more often than found on the bookshelf and is highly recommended to anyone swinging a hammer to shape hot metal.

STAINED GLASS MAKING BASICS
By Lynn Haunstein

The author has based the book on the highly successful hands-on approach that she has perfected teaching thousands of students in her stained glass classes. The projects—starting with the simplest and ranging to the more difficult—build on mastering skills and tools; understanding glass, copper foil, and lead came techniques; creating a good work environment; and stained glass safety.

CALLIGRAPHY WORKBOOK FOR BEGINNERS
By Maureen Peters
A basic, how-to book for beginners featuring 5 popular fonts or hands, Italic, Uncial, Foundation, Gothic, and Casual Pointed Pen, shown in step-by-step detail. The author, an experienced teacher of calligraphy, builds the letters, numbers, and punctuation, giving over 300 photos for each style, so beginners can see the strokes, how the pen is held, and how the characters take form.

These crochet ragdolls are specially designed to be huggable lovies for the little ones or loyal playmates for slightly older children. Many of the animals have patterns for both a large “mom or dad” version and a baby version, including the monkey, frog, cat, bunny, crocodile, dog, hippo, owl, kangaroo, fox, sheep, and penguin. There is even a section on how to make little clothes for them to wear.
“Combine crocheted squares and rectangles to form a surprising array of stylish pullovers, cardigans, lightweight tops, and wraps. If you are new to crocheting garments, these easy-to-follow instructions will have you hooking up a whole new wardrobe of beautiful, creative crochet pieces you will be proud to wear.” — WeCrochet
HELP ME SAY GOODBYE
By Janis Silverman
An art therapy and activity book for children coping with death. Sensitive exercises address all the questions children may have during this emotional and troubling crisis. Children are encouraged to express in pictures what they are often incapable of expressing in words.

IN THE KING’S NAME
Volume 28
By Alexander Kent

Filled with high-seas intrigue and sharp tensions, this nautical novel takes an intense voyage into the heart of Napoleonic-era Africa. The year is 1819 and Captain Adam Bolitho has been sent on an urgent but risky mission to make a fast passage from Plymouth to Freetown, West Africa, with secret orders for the senior officer stationed there.

KNACK BRIDGE FOR EVERYONE
By D. Crisfield, Photographs by Eli Burakian and Stephen Gorman
Bridge is a famously challenging card game, one that’s next to impossible to learn without a whole host of visual aids. But books on the subject all too often seem to ignore this. Enter Knack Bridge for Everyone, which takes a step-by-step, visual approach to explaining the game clearly to beginners and intermediates.

THE HOMESTEADER’S HERBAL COMPANION

By Amy K. Fewell, Foreword by Joel Salatin

“Even as a homesteader myself, herbalism has always been a bit of a mystery. Until now. In The Homesteader’s Herbal Companion, Amy makes herbalism not only easy to understand, but also inspiring. Instructions, dosages, and instructions make herbalism do-able, even for the average person. Looks like we’ll be planting a much larger herbal garden this spring.” —Shaye Elliott, author of Welcome to the Farm and Family Table

WHY STOMACH ACID IS GOOD FOR YOU
By Jonathan V. Wright M.D. and Lane Lenard Ph.D.

This revolutionary book unleashes a brilliant new plan for permanently curing heartburn by relieving the most common cause of the problem: insufficient stomach acid secretion. The fact is that, contrary to popular belief, heartburn is almost always associated with too little stomach acid. Not too much.

CR A ZY S ExY CA N CER TIPS
By Kris Carr, Foreword by Sheryl Crow

“I read Crazy Sexy Cancer Tips cover to cover on a flight from LA to NY. I laughed out loud, wept quietly, and most of all, marveled at the magic that is Kris Carr. If Deepak Chopra, What To Expect When You’re Expecting, and Sex and the City had a love child, it would look just like Kris’ Crazy Sexy Cancer Tips. It is sheer perfection for cancer ‘cowgirls’ and their loved ones—colorful, soulful, and intimate.” —Rory Freedman, coauthor of #1 NY Times bestseller Skinny Bitch
IRONFIT SECRETS FOR HALF IRON-DISTANCE TRIATHLON SUCCESS
By Don Fink and Melanie Fink

NAKED STATUES, FAT GLADIATORS, AND WAR ELEPHANTS
By Garrett Ryan

“It’s amazing what they don’t teach you in school about the people of ancient Greek and Rome. Were they tall? Did they shave? Did they go on vacation? Did they believe in aliens? Garrett Ryan’s endlessly eye-opening book made me feel like I didn’t just know about the ancients, but that I actually knew them.” —Ken Jennings, writer and Jeopardy! champion

The one thing the heroes in this collection have in common—from the bloody battlefields of the Civil War through the lonely mountains of Afghanistan—is uncommon valor. Each of the men in these stories had the courage to calmly stare death in the face and move on—to do what they had to because that was their duty and the lives of others meant more to them than their own.
ARMY OFFICER’S GUIDE
Fifty-Third Edition
By Dr Robert J. Dalessandro

For more than eighty years, this book has been the bible for U.S. Army officers. Condensed from Army regulations—and the customs and traditions of the service—this new edition provides the most up-to-date soldier information.

“Since I was one of those Ritchie Boys and attended the 7th Class in April 1944, I can vouch for the accuracy of everything described in painstaking detail in this magnificent book. The author’s research continued by telling of these soldiers’ use of their training in Europe as well as in the Pacific theater, and also of some of their post-war activities in these parts of the world.” —Paul Fairbrook, former Ritchie Boy

TITANS IN THE MUD
By Otto Carius, Translated by Robert J. Edwards

WWII began with a metallic roar as the German Blitzkrieg raced across Europe, spearheaded by the most dreaded weapon of the 20th century: the Panzer. No German tank better represents that thundering power than the infamous Tiger, and Otto Carius was one of the most successful commanders to ever take a Tiger into battle, destroying well over 150 enemy tanks during his incredible career.

THE ANOINTED
By Jeremiah Lambert and Geoffrey S. Stewart

“The Anointed” shows evidence of a great deal of research, and the subject is fascinating...The authors’ central (if implicit) point is a good one. The old era was ruled by loyalty and social connections. The profit motive that replaced it may have been crass, but it imposed a welcome regime of merit.” —The Wall Street Journal

To promote the movie National Treasure starring Nicolas Cage, Walt Disney Pictures identified W.C. Jameson as one of the three experts in the U.S. on finding lost treasures. Disney representatives interviewed him for publicity of the film and then spent two days with him in the mountains filming what will become part of the trailer for the film on DVD.
ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY MINUTES
By William Hazelgrove

“If you think you know the history of the Titanic, think again and read this book. Hazelgrove morphs a seemingly well known story into a riveting tale in this stunning book! Whether you’re particularly interested in the Titanic or not, this is a book everyone should read! It’s quite possibly one of the best nonfiction books I’ve ever read!” — Good Reads Reviews

"Chuck Raasch has written an important book, one that contains both an aerial and intimate view of the human cost of the greatest battle ever fought in North America." —Ken Burns, director of the Emmy Award–winning documentary The Civil War
IN THE TIME OF THE REVOLUTION
By Alan Axelrod

The American Revolution was a war, but it was also a span of history in which some people fought, but most just lived. They thought, acted, worked, raised families, worshipped, built, sold, bought, and tried to live as best they could in a time of hope, anxiety, despair, loss, gain, and, above all, disruption. This is a popular, single-volume history of the American Revolution, 1775 to 1783, an intensely active, exciting, and critical span of time in North America.

DOCTOR WORE PETTICOATS
By Chris Enss

A New York Times Bestseller!

“No women need apply.” Western towns looking for a local doctor during the frontier era often concluded their advertisements in just that manner. Yet apply they did. And in small towns all over the west, highly trained women from the East took on the post of local doctor to great acclaim. Offers a glimpse into the fascinating lives of ten of these amazing women.

THE DETECTIVE IN THE DOORYARD
By Timothy A. Cotton

When I stumbled across Tim Cotton’s writing, I assumed that he was a dedicated cop who wrote amusing stories on the side. Having read his book, however, I’m now beginning to think he is a dedicated writer who arrests ne’er-do-wells in his spare time. Whatever his true passion, this is a very funny book, and I hope he writes another one. —Mike Rowe, host of Dirty Jobs and Somebody’s Gotta Do It

GRANDMA DROVE THE GARBAGE TRUCK
By Katie Clark

Grandma has run the town’s garbage business, and her three sons drive the trucks. But what happens when her sons are all too sick to work—and it’s the 4th of July, the day of the Big Parade? Leave it to Grandma to get the town clean, with the help of her young grandson, Billy, as she embarks on a hilarious ramp through town—and creates nearly as much mess as she cleans up.

THE YOUNG ACTOR'S HANDBOOK
By Jeremy Kruse

The author, an actor, writer, producer, and director who teaches method acting, acting for camera, improvisation, and sketch comedy at The Lee Strasberg Theatre and Film Institute in New York, mends this mangled genre, distilling invaluable lessons and years of experience down to a lean, mean, intuitive hundred page primer.

ELEGANT PEOPLE
By Curt Bianchi
The definitive history of Weather Report, the premier fusion band of the 1970s and beyond.

Founded in late 1970 by three stars of the jazz world—keyboardist Joe Zawinul, saxophonist Wayne Shorter, and bassist Miroslav Vitouš—they went on to become the most unique and enduring jazz band of its era, with a style of music wholly its own.

RELEASE THE SNYDER CUT
By Sean O’Connell

“The most comprehensive look at one of the most significant and successful fan campaigns in movie history, as told by the fans themselves. O’Connell brings years of expertise to the story, providing thoughtful, engaging analysis of not just Zack Snyder’s Justice League film, but also where it fits within the history of comic-book movies.” —Erik Davis, Fandango

“Out There is one hell of a page turner, authored by some of the finest journalists of our time. I highly recommend it. These are the wildest tales from the fringe, the very crème de la crème of madness, divine or otherwise. Here are stories of misadventures mirthful and appalling, vagabonds on hellish journeys, fanatics of freaky sports, and emperors of obsession.”

— Douglas Preston, #1 New York Times bestselling author of The Lost City of the Monkey God

"There is a 60-page appendix that can stand alone as a small reference volume of details such as route planning, sail repair, the problems of sail and line chafe, rigging and hull construction, self-steering, freak waves and weather, plus much more. Altogether a strange, fascinating, and informative book." — Boat U.S.
CLASSIC CAMPFIRE STORIES
By William W. Forney M.D.

Need a good scary story to tell to youngsters—or to anyone, young or old, who wants a little fright before going off to sleep in the great outdoors? Nothing goes better with gooey s’mores and a glowing campfire than a good ghost story, and this collection of Doc Forney’s best scary classics and frightening folktales will send shivers up anyone’s spine.

CASTING FORWARD
By Steve Ramirez, Foreword by Ted Williams, Illustrated by Bob White

“Every bit the unique sort of Hill Country artistry as a Jerry Jeff Walker show at Gruene Hall. These words are incredibly honest, gritty, and melodic… sometimes rowdy, always soulful. Steve Ramirez has an uncanny knack for conveying the 360-degree perspective of fly fishing like only an author who has seen so much—and felt so much—can. He’s an angling balladeer.”—Kirk Deeter, Editor-in-Chief, Trout Unlimited/Trout Media

THE GREATEST FISHING STORIES EVER TOLD
Edited by Lamar Underwood

"Every once in a while, a book publisher comes up with a great concept for a series of books that deserve more than superficial recognition. Such a series is “The Greatest (fill in the blank) Stories Ever Told”, anthologies that should win places on many bedside tables. On the long winter nights that lie ahead, such stories make great reading.” —The Lexington County Chronicle

STACKPOLE BOOKS
Here are the 50 proven, go-to patterns that every trout fly fisher should carry to catch trout almost all the time, anywhere in the world of trout streams and still waters. From the hundreds of trout patterns available to today’s fly fisher, Hughes cuts through the complicated choices and gives a basic selection of essential trout flies that cover the broad spectrum of trout fishing conditions.

LEONARD BAILEY AND HIS WOODWORKING PLANES
By Paul Van Pernis and John G. Wells

Leonard Bailey was one of the inventive geniuses of the American Industrial Revolution. His designs and patented inventions solved problems with woodworking planes that had plagued craftsmen for centuries. His planes allowed woodworkers to transition from the age of wooden carpenter’s planes to modern, metallic, fully adjustable planes suitable for any kind of woodworking. Covers the thirty-two-year period in Leonard Bailey’s life.

GLOBE PEQUOT
THE LAST GOOD HEIST
By Wayne Worcester, Randall Richard and Tim White

This heist was bold enough and big enough to rock the underworld to its core, and it left La Cosa Nostra in the region awash in turmoil that still reverberates more than forty years later. Last Good Heist is the inside story of the robbery and its aftermath.

“Amy Archer-Gilligan—Sister Amy, she was called—was a murderess well-enough known to be cited as an inspiration for Joseph Kesselring’s perennial grim farce, Arsenic and Old Lace... Amy’s sensational trial attracted great interest, and Phelps wraps the whole dirty business in a delightfully cozy narrative. A genteel true-crime excursion.” — Booklist

THOREAU’S MAINE WOODS
Photographs by Dan Tobyne

Photographer Dan Tobyne captures the essence of the Maine Thoreau discovered and described in his book. The combination of short excerpts with stunning imagery carries Thoreau’s work to a higher level, presenting it in both glowing words and pictures.

“Though by now it is common knowledge that Portland is home to a progressive, ever-growing food community, it is refreshing to see such an impressive array of restaurants represented in this book. Equally exciting is the diversity of the cuisine prepared by these chefs, with the scope of the recipes lending themselves to any given night and any manner of craving.” — Joe Ricchio, Food Editor, Maine Magazine & Host of Food Coma TV

Florida has 1200 miles of coastline, almost 700 miles of which are sandy beaches. Exploring along those beaches offers encounters with myriads of plants, animals, minerals, and manmade objects—all are covered in this comprehensive guide. In addition to being an identification guide, the book reveals much of the wonder and mystery between dune and sea along Florida’s long coastline.

AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF PALM BEACH
With Russell Kelley. By The Historical Society of Palm Beach County
A nostalgic journey told through the photographic collection of the Historical Society of Palm Beach County. From an early pioneer community, Palm Beach evolved over the past 150 years into today’s sophisticated resort, starting with the grand hotels of Henry Flagler, the Royal Poinciana and The Breakers, and elegant mansions of the Gilded Age.
AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF SIESTA KEY
By Thomas Philip Farrell and Philip M. Farrell

A history of a very popular beach destination near Sarasota on the Gulf coast of Florida. Reviewing the past century of Siesta Key development in the context of Florida’s ancient and recent emergence, this book explains how one small Gulf coast barrier island has become world famous as “#1 Beach in the USA.”

MR. LAS VEGAS HAS A BAD KNEE
By Martin J. Smith

“Ride along with a savvy storyteller as he cruises the American Southwest chronicling the eccentric and the absurd, from dinosaur fabricators to Liberace mourners to mummy moguls, with star turns by Buzz Aldrin and Muhammad Ali. Martin J. Smith is an expert at seeing the big picture in the seemingly trivial.” —Tom Huth, novelist

FALCON GUIDES
ROCK AND ROLL EXPLORER GUIDE TO SAN FRANCISCO AND THE BAY AREA
By Mike Katz and Crispin Kott, Foreword by Joel Gion
“...a great history of the often overlooked musical contributions of the San Francisco Valley area. From Etta James to the Grateful Dead, Santana to CCR to Metallica and SO many more, this great combo travel guide/music history/biography has so much information in it that I know it will be a book I will be rereading, and probably more than once.” —NetGalley Reviewer

NEVADA MYTHS AND LEGENDS
Second Edition
By Richard Moreno

From the mystery of a U.S. Senator’s death (was he kept on ice until after the election?) to a haunting of the Governor’s mansion, this selection of fourteen stories from Nevada’s past explores some of the Silver State’s most compelling mysteries and debunks some of its most famous myths.

Reba McEntire
“I think it is so cool that Carol kept a journal on all the events that happened in Blake Shelton’s life. It’s one thing to get Blake’s point of view but to hear another person’s perspective, who was there with him every step of the way, is priceless. I wish I had somebody writing all of those memories down for my career! I learned a lot about Blake and his early days in country music—I know you will too.”

—Reba McEntire

Let’s Go for a Ride is the story of William (Bill) Livezey’s thirty-year career in the Maine Warden Service. Heralded as “one of the best covert investigators in the country” by Maine Warden Service Lieutenant Dan Scott, Bill is the agency’s longest-tenured undercover operative, having spent twenty years in the Special Investigations Unit.

Win and Meredith Blevins
“The Widowed Ones is exceptional in several ways, not the least of which is that every detail was carefully researched but it reads as if it were a novel. Very few non-fiction books are difficult for a reader to put down. This is one of those books.”

—Win and Meredith Blevins, Best Selling Authors of The Darkness Rolling and Moonlight Water

Teodros Kiros (PH.D)
“Soul of Goodness is a masterpiece which blends the images of the novel, the philosopher’s wisdom and the journalist’s clarity. Written beautifully through the powers of images and narratives, the novel is used in the service of philosophy and philosophy itself as the dwelling place of all those who want to wonder, to imagine and be healed.”

—Teodros Kiros (PH.D) Professor of Philosophy at Berklee college and Harvard University, producer and host of African Ascent, Self-Definition and other works from all over the world, it is the definitive guide for anyone who loves horror films and movie fans of all ages.

LEAF YOUR TROUBLES BEHIND
How to Destress and Grow Happiness through Plants
By Karen Hugg

Plants are like a magic pill for our mental health. Growing science tells us they lower heart rates, make us more relaxed and productive, boost our immune system, help us live longer, and provide air, food, fragrance, and beauty. In Leaf Your Troubles Behind: How to Destress and Grow Happiness Through Plants, horticulturalist Karen Hugg draws on the science and two decades of professional gardening experience to help readers reduce stress and increase happiness.

CASTING ONWARD
Fishing Adventures in Search of America's Native Gamefish
By Steve Ramirez, Illustrated by Bob White, Foreword by Chris Wood

"The River Why, by David James Duncan, so profoundly influenced me that I named a beloved dog after the protagonist, Gus. A Fly-Fisherman’s Blue Ridge, by Chris Camuto and Holy Ghost Creek by Frank Weissbarth, are two of the finest fishing books I have ever read—mostly because they are not really about fishing. Casting Onward sits in the pantheon of these books. It is a book about fishing, but on a much more important level, it is about us, our relationship with one-another, and our relationship with the lands and waters that sustain the planet.” —Chris Wood, President/CEO, Trout Unlimited

JOE LOUIS VS. BILLY CONN
Boxing’s Unforgettable Summer of 1941
By Ed Gruver

“Few sporting events deserve to be remembered a week after they happen, let alone 80 years later. But the Louis-Conn fight of 1941 lived in the memories of everyone who watched it—or listened to it—forver. And thanks to Ed Gruver’s compelling and lyrical book, it is certain to stay that way for generations to come. Two timeless sporting heroes, one classic fight, and one remarkable author. Just a wonderful and engaging read.” —Mike Vaccaro, New York Post sports columnist and author of 1941: The Greatest Year in Sports

SOMETHING SPECTACULAR
A Rock’s Journey
By Carmela Coyle, Illustrated by Carly Allen-Fletcher
Takes readers on an epic journey through time. Through ice ages, meteor showers, and earthquakes, readers experience the formation of an ancient treasure. Meanwhile, somewhere in the present, a little girl sets out on a hike with her family. The two parallel stories collide when the little girl finds something SPECTACULAR on the side of a trail—a treasure forged over the course of hundreds of MILLIONS of years all leading to this very moment—the discovery of a precious heart rock.

RIDERS IN THE STORM
The Triumphs and Tragedies of a Black Cavalry Regiment in the Civil War
By John D. Warner Jr.
The service of African-American soldiers during the Civil War is one of that conflict’s most stirring, if still not completely understood, aspects. In this comprehensive account—from recruitment into combat, and covering all the military, political, and social aspects of this story—John D. Warner recounts the history of the 5th Massachusetts Cavalry Regiment, the only Black cavalry regiment raised in the North during the war.
