LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

It’s hard to believe that I ushered my first childrens’ book into print exactly forty years ago this year. Unbelievably, that book—The Last Bit Bear: A Fable—is still in print and can be found in this catalog. Over the last four decades we have amassed hundreds of titles for children in a variety of formats and genres, including board books, picture books, activity books, YA novels, how-to, and many more. The first catalog pages highlight some of our “franchise” authors, those who have developed deep backlists and continue to add a new title every one or two years: Carmela La Coyle, Karel Hayes, Linda Kranz, Liza Gardner Walsh, and Lynn Plourde. Here also are such well-loved Rising Moon books as There Was a Coyote Who Swallowed a Flea and The Three Little Javelinas, the popular Northword “Takealong” nature guides, and many regional titles from imprints such as Down East Books and Pineapple Press. There is something for every child here, as well as for the child within us all.

Mystery of Lake Kanakondah
BY KAREL HAYES
The story begins with the seemingly harmless decision of Alex’s parents to change their vacation plans. Instead of going to the beach they will spend the summer at Lake Kanakondah. Soon he’ll be harassed by a ghost that might not be a ghost, a monster that might not be a monster, and a villain that is truly a villain. With the help of his older sister, Samantha, and two new friends, Alex will learn that solving each mystery only pulls him deeper into a dangerous adventure.

Bat's Moonlight Feast
ILLUSTRATED BY CARLY ALLEN-FLETCHER, BY GORDON MCMILLAN

The tube-tipped nectar bat is the pollinator of a pale, bell-shaped flower found in the Ecuadorian cloud forests. This is the story of one such bat and her nocturnal search for this rare flower whose nectar sustains her.

"The illustrations are beautiful. The beauty of bats and their world is shown to young children and will hopefully encourage them to learn more about bats."—Susan Underbrink, Reviewer at Romantic Daily News

Mya McLaren, The Brave Science Girl: The Toad Cave
BY DOUGLAS HADDAD

Mya McLaren, brave science girl, has a passion for nature. One night, as Mya sleeps with her window open, tiny creatures enter her room— toads! Through her efforts Mya saves the toad’s forest and receives a letter from her state legislator stating that all tree removal will end, and the toads’ habitat will be saved.

The Three Little Javelinas
BY SUSAN LOWELL, ILLUSTRATED BY JIM HARRIS

Everyone knows the story of the three little pigs, but now you’re going to meet the three little javelinas (pronounced ha-ve-LEE-nas)—lovable, wild, southwestern cousins of pigs. This clever and humorous tale is sure to delight children of all ages, especially those familiar with the Southwest. Dressed in cowboy duds and prepared for life in the rugged desert, these characters are more than any coyote bargained for.

Spinning Tails
BY TOM KNISELY, ILLUSTRATED BY MEGAN LLOYD-THOMPSON

Spring on the farm means sheep-shearing time! In this enchanting tale, a family of adorable mice learn how sheep fleeces can be dyed, spun, and woven into a blanket. But that wool also looks so soft and inviting to the little mice—surely no one would mind if they take a little for their beds?

Featuring the beloved family of mice from The Weaver’s Surprise, Tom Knisely spins this yarn of their new adventures. What will happen when the weaver runs out of wool for his blanket? Can his mouse friends replenish his supply in time?

The Weaver’s Surprise
BY TOM KNISELY, ILLUSTRATED BY MEGAN LLOYD-THOMPSON

“The Weaver’s Surprise is a charming children’s story about a friendly weaver, a family of mice, and the way weaving connects them all. Tom’s trademark warmth as well as the love and joy he has for weaving are apparent on each and every page, in no small part because of the beautiful illustrations of Megan Lloyd. The illustrations of the loom and weaving tools are lovingly rendered, proper weaving terms are used, and there’s an illustrated tool guide at the end. Children have a remarkable capacity for learning and understanding, and this book treats children like the intelligent little humans they are. I look forward to reading this book many more times.” —Christina Garton, Handwoven

A Land Remembered has become Florida’s favorite novel. Now this Student Edition in two volumes makes this rich, rugged story of the American pioneer spirit more accessible to young readers. Patrick Smith tells of three generations of the Maclevys, a Florida family battling the hardships of the frontier. The story opens in 1858, when Tobias and Emma Macvey arrive in the Florida wilderness with their son, Zech, to start a new life, and ends in 1968 with Soloman Macvey, who realizes that his wealth has not been worth the cost to the land. Between is a sweeping story rich in Florida history with a cast of memorable characters who battle wild animals, rustlers, Confederate deserters, mosquitoes, starvation, hurricanes, and freezes to carve a kingdom out of the Florida swamp.

Our House
BY GRAHAM NASH, ILLUSTRATED BY HUGH SYME, FOREWORD BY CAROLE KING
“Perfect for those, like me, who would love to have a keepsake about the song they love so well, and who wish to share it with the children in their life. Enchanting!” —Literary Redhead

Marketed as a picture book, this wonderfully illustrated story behind the history of the iconic and 50-year-old song “Our House” is the surprise sleeper of the summer — and will touch deeply readers of all ages” —Tom Mayer, Mountain Times

Heetunka’s Harvest
A Tale of the Plains Indians
BY JENNIFER BERRY JONES

“Each autumn Heetunka the Bean Mouse gathers beans for her storehouse, while Indian women come to trade for her goods. One Dakota woman decides to disregard the courtesy exchange, and finds the spirits seek revenge in this warm Plains Indian tale.” —Midwest Book Review

On the Pecos Trail
The Old West Adventures of Fish Rawlings
BY PATRICK DEAREN

Eleven-year-old Fish Rawlings has always wanted to be a cowboy. Now, in the spring of 1868, he has his chance. His uncle is driving a cattle herd across Texas, and Fish is going with him. Little does Fish know that he is saddling up for the wildest rides of his life.

ANIMALS

At Night
BY MARGARET PEOT

What animals forage by night and sleep by day? This children’s picture book describes the nocturnal lives of nine common animals: foxes, porcupines, raccoons, skunks, opossums, bobcats, owls, mouse, and rabbits. Join the adult animals guiding their children through the forest during the dark of night. The book includes information on the common names of the animal’s offspring (i.e. foxkit).

Giraffes
BY JILL ANDERSON

“This small book in the Wild Ones series does an excellent job of introducing preschoolers to the basic facts. Far from the usual tedious account, this enlivens the astonishing facts of the giant.”
—Booklist

“Excellent choices for young reader or for read alouds.”
—School Library Journal

Counting Our Way to Maine
BY MAGGIE SMITH

First published in 1995 by Orchard Books, this book takes one baby, two dogs, and three bicycles on a journey from the big city to Maine's seacoast. Objects packed for the trip and things seen along the way are all happily counted, finishing in a shining finale as the family tallies 20 fireflies found during their last evening in Maine.

“An exuberant picture-book biography of the Cuban-born salsa singer. From its rhythmic opening, the first-person narrative dances readers through Cruz’s youth in Havana, a childhood bounded by scents of nature and home, the sweet taste of sugar, and the sound of music. This is a brilliant introduction to a significant woman and her music.” — School Library Journal

Storms and Snow, Skis and Sox! New England’s Weather Truly Rocks!
BY ASHLEY BAYLOR
Follow young Teddy’s adventures through a year of his life, talking about some of his favorite things in New England—especially the weather. Along the journey, Teddy explores nor’easters, the ocean, snowstorms, and other things that make life in New England unique and exciting—like rooting for the Bruins and Patriots or exploring a lighthouse.
